45 Years before the Public. THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

ACUE AND FEVER.
No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar-coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILL. Each wrapper bears the signature of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name, McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.
There are a many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a red sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and turbid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of gonorrhea. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compounds, which have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effective cure of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Weakness, suffering and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Senator Jones is expected back this month. He will stump the State this fall.

The product of the Northern Belle for June was $106,620; of the Standard, $165,170.

John C. Smyles has been commissioned as a Notary Public, to reside at Wells, Elko county.

The census returns give the population of San Francisco as 233,066, including 20,549 Chinese.

The Gazette last night said that Mr. Kinkead was an honorable man. The rapidity with which it changes its utterances is remarkable.

Judge Porter, Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana, opens the canvass on the 12th, and speaks at Indianapolis on the 14th. He is confident of the success of the Republicans in that State in October.

France has the centennial fever, and will celebrate the anniversary of the destruction of "The Bastille," which occurred July 14, 1789. "The Bastille" was a prison of state, and with its destruction perished the hopes of the Bourbon dynasty.

Reports received from the census in Vermont indicate such a decrease in population that it seems doubtful if she will have more than two Congressmen under the next apportionment. There are three now, all Republicans. Some counties show a falling off from 10 to 12 per cent.

Colonel Felton, nephew of Tilden, died at the Everett House, New York, Thursday morning. The remains were removed to the residence of ex-Governor Tilden. Felton has been ailing for some days, and on Monday was taken seriously ill, his death resulting from embolism of the heart at 3 A. M.

It is the evident purpose of Indiana Republicans to conduct the campaign largely on the partisan and unheeded decision of the Supreme Court of that State on the constitutional amendments. The decision itself furnishes a basis for a vigorous campaign, in which the utter disregard of law and common honesty of the Democratic Justices will appear.

The Republicans of the Third Minnesota District have renominated W. D. Washburn for Congress. The convention was a very large one, and the nomination was made without a dissenting voice, the general expressions being in favor of a rebuke of the attempt of Ignatius Donnelly to overthrow the will of the people as expressed at the polls two years ago.

Contemporary literary genius is rarely honored to the extent it deserves; but after death steps in we appreciate our lost literary men and women, and build monuments to their memory. In New York a movement is inaugurated to erect a monument to Edgar A. Poe, in Central Park. The project is in the hands of a dramatic association composed of the most eminent actors of that metropolis.

The Eureka National Guard held its final meeting as a company Tuesday night, Captain R. M. Beatty presiding. After a full discussion of the situation, in which the liberality of Eurekians in their support of the military element was fully and freely commented on, a resolution was adopted that the company do now disband. The funeral services were brief but impressive. Captain Beatty retains charge of the State property until duly relieved by the authorities of his responsibility.

In regard to the report sent out that army officers in Washington believe and have information that General Hancock will resign his Major Generalship in the army, it can be stated that no officers have any such information, and further, they do not believe that he will resign. There is no reason why he should. The precedents are all the other way. While the War Department has heard nothing from General Hancock it is not believed he will resign from the army unless he is elected to the Presidency.

NATIONAL BANK.

A writ of mandamus was lately denied by the United States Supreme Court for the District of Columbia upon the Comptroller of the Currency upon the application of the Citizens' Bank Louisiana, a creditor of the Crescent City National Banking Association, of New Orleans, in the hands of a receiver appointed by the Comptroller under the following circumstances: The bank failed March 18, 1873, having a capital of $500,000, and on indebtedness, including principal and interest, of $788,750. The amount realized from the assets of the bank was $555,233, leaving a deficiency including expenses, of about $350,000. In order to cover this deficiency the Comptroller of the Currency ordered an assessment upon the shareholders of seventy per cent, and the net amount of $112,658 has been realized from that source.

Section 551 of the Revised Statutes provides "that the shareholders of every national banking association shall be held individually responsible equally and rotably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts and engagements of such association to the extent of the demand of their capital stock therein at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such shares." The Comptroller held that under this section he is required to make an assessment upon the shareholders for any deficiency in the assets. The amount of the assessment in the case of the Crescent City National Bank was sufficient to pay the creditors in full, if the whole amount had been collected, but as only a portion of the amount was realized on account of the insolvency of many of the shareholders, a rule was taken to show cause why a mandamus should not issue compelling him to assess said shareholders to the extent of the par value of their stock, or thirty per cent in addition to said assessment of seventy per cent. The Court denied the writ, holding that under said section 551 solvent shareholders were not to be called upon, and could not be assessed to make good any deficiency arising from inability to collect from other shareholders on account of their insolvency.

The Court also expressed doubt as to their power to review the discretionary action of the Comptroller in the premises.

A GRAVE CHARGE.

There comes a report from Washington that, soon after the Election Commission made known its decision, General Hancock wrote to General Sheridan that he (Hancock) believed Tilden had been elected President of the United States; and being elected, Tilden had a right to take the oath of office elsewhere than at Washington; and that if he (Hancock) received any orders from Tilden as President of the United States, he should obey them. The San Francisco Chronicle comments as follows:

If Hancock wrote such a letter, or if by word or act he gave out such a sentiment, he is a bad and dangerous man, and not fit to be trusted in the office he now holds, much less the one to which he aspires. It is not for any officer of the army to decide who has been elected President. It is the duty of an army officer to obey the law and take their cue of action from the civil authorities recognized by Congress, and in power by law and not by force. The Commission that decided against Tilden's title was one regularly formed by Act of Congress, both political parties assisting in it and agreeing to accept its decision, with these conditions: First, that it should be accepted by Congress; and second, that it might be reviewed by the Supreme Court. And we repeat, that if, pending this settlement in any of its stages, any officer of the army in high command expressed a willingness to use force in setting Tilden or executing any of his orders as President, such officer is a very dangerous man and not to be trusted in command of an American army. The proposition was nothing less than revolutionary, and if it can be proven that Hancock made it he ought to be court-martialed and driven out of the service. Nor should "high character" or "distinguished services" shield him from an investigation.

PACIFIC COAST PIONEERS.—At a meeting of the Pacific Coast Pioneers, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. E. B. Harris; Secretary, T. B. Storer; Treasurer, S. D. Baker; Marshal, Frank Ward; Librarian, Professor W. F. Stewart. The following Vice Presidents were elected: Ira S. Park, Lee McGowan and Alf. Doten, of Storey county; Charles Wilson, Ormsby county; John Briggs, Lyon county; Wm. Can, Washoe county; H. C. Blanchard, Esmeralda county. Directors—J. S. Peck, W. D. C. Gibson, A. J. Tyrrell and Miles Goodman.

VIRGINIA SCHOOLS.—It cost $44,023 57 to run the public schools of Virginia last year—average attendance 1,276 scholars—or $34 49 per head. Average monthly salary paid male teachers $153 33. Average monthly salary paid female teachers (Grammar Department) $94 77; (Primary Department) $94 77. The total cost, including about $1,000 for apparatus, furniture, etc., was about $6,000 less than the previous year. The teachers received $33,026 53.

ENGLISH OF INDIANA.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald had an interview with Mr. John C. New, ex-United States Treasurer, on Monday, with the following result:—

Mr. New says that he does not believe that Don Cameron will accept the position as Chairman of the National Committee. When asked who would be chairman he said perhaps John Logan would be named. He thought there was not a great deal of talent on the committee. The idea of making William E. Chandler chairman he rejects entirely. I asked Mr. New if it was true that he and Mr. English, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, were partners. He said that it was true that for fifteen years they managed a national bank together, owning three-fourths of the stock.

Q. Then you must know Mr. English pretty well? A. Know Bill English? I know him just as well as if I had made him. I would have made a very different man if I had had the making of him, but I couldn't know him any better.

Q. How rich is he? A. I see the statement going that he is worth $30,000,000. Mr. English has $1,000,000, and his party won't get $5,000 of it. He is one of the closest business men I ever knew, and if he does not come out of the campaign richer by $5,000 rather than poorer, it won't be like Bill English.

Q. What are the facts, Mr. New; which side was Mr. English on during the war? A. He was on the Union side; no doubt about that, and he was very strongly so. He voted for Morton every time for Governor, and he did not vote for Hendricks for Governor. He voted twice against Frank Landers when he ran for Congress. Mr. English is a consistent Union man and hard money man.

Q. Well, is Mr. English going to be able to carry his State? A. No sir; he is the most unpopular Democrat in the State. If he were to run for any office in Marion county, the county in which Indianapolis is situated, he could not poll within 2,000 of the total Democratic vote. Joe McDonald is the strongest Democrat in the State, and he is the man whom they ought to have nominated.

HOW THEY STAND.

The following companies had "cash on hand," or a "balance to credit," on June 30th: Consolidated Virginia, $542,112 95 (including, $350,066 61 cash in bank and $192,046 34 assay value unsold bullion); California, $73,639 50 (including $33,982 32 cash and $39,657 18 unsold bullion); Union Consolidated, $83,073 66; Alta, $23,381 25; Benton, $17,481 61; Utah, $92,635 23; Imperial, $3,979; Potosi, $10,408; Silver Hill, $22,396; Challenge, $6,490; Exchequer, $22,482 36; Alpha, $2,817 10; Hale & Norcross, $19,286 74 (the expenses at this mine for June were $24,215 59); Sierra Nevada, $5,05; Gould & Curry, $8,648 99; Occidental, $13,193 67; Northern Belle, $96,627 90; Standard Consolidated, $198,647 19; Equator, $401 45; Tioga, $1,978 18; Double Standard, $4,845 58; McClintock, $460 72; Bechtel Consolidated, $3,423 50; Summit, $3,160 66; DeLancey, $7,294 54; Booker, $10,667 66; Bodie, $19,736 83; Mono, $4,040 78.

The following companies had an indebtedness on June 30th: Best & Belcher, $19,534 31; Chollar, $1,834; Ophir, $32,350 68; Mexican, $1,508 75; Lady Washington, $6,266 72; Bullion, $300,000 (bills payable for Ward shaft); Bulwer Consolidated, $1,008 43; Metaltic, $1,074 61.

Democratic Trouble in Virginia—Two Sets of Hancock Electors in the Field.

A Inter-Ocean Washington special of the 8th says Stilson Hutchins has ceased to boast and begun to plead. This morning in the Post he wails over Virginia as follows: The Readjusters Party of Virginia met in convention at Richmond yesterday and earnestly endorsed the Democratic National ticket, but nominated a full and distinct set of Presidential Electors to be voted for next November. This means in effect that the regular Democrats of the State will vote for one Hancock electoral ticket and the Readjusters for another Hancock electoral ticket, and the Readjusters for one Garfield electoral ticket, leaving the latter to carry the State and Garfield to secure its electoral vote. There is a large Democratic majority in Virginia, but it cannot be divided and remain a majority. If the two contending factions of the Democracy—the Conservatives and the Readjusters—insist upon running separate Hancock tickets, Garfield will carry the State and the eleven electoral votes. A remedy for this threatened evil must be found at once.

THE CAMPAIGN.

What Hon. R. M. Daggett has to say of it—The Issues and the Men.

[Gold Hill News, 8th.]

As was mentioned in the News of yesterday, Hon. R. M. Daggett is once more among his constituents in Nevada. Almost the first question asked him everywhere, after greetings are exchanged, is in regard to the political outlook. Mr. Daggett's replies are most satisfactory. He says that Garfield is a big man—big in all that constitutes true greatness. He is, moreover, a man who enjoys the confidence of his Ohio constituents most perfectly, as well as of all those who know and are accustomed to associate with him. He says, moreover, that the man who dares to question his strict integrity will meet with a rebuff as strong and ready as the kick of a mule. The idea that a man who stood on the floor of Congress and denounced the back salary grab as Garfield did and refuses to take it when he was entitled to it, is going to take a few hundreds or even thousands of dollars as a bribe is simply absurd. Besides, Garfield has been in office for years and is still poor, and that is a sure proof that he is not corrupt. No man dare insinuate aught against him where the man is best known, nor even among his associates.

Mr. Daggett has no doubt whatever of the result of the campaign. The working classes East are enthusiastically in favor of Garfield. They recognize in him a true and honored representative of their own class and are proud of him, of his record and his abilities. His sympathies are with the people, while Hancock is looked upon as an aristocrat, a military man of the McClellan type, between whom the masses there is really nothing in common. Even now it takes as much ceremony to get into his presence as it does the Czar of Russia. The result will be seen in the coming election. In fact all classes East fear a complete disturbance of established business and financial relations which will result disastrously to all classes in case of a change of administration. This will also tell heavily in the coming election.

The Democrats, in putting up Hancock, looked solely to his availability. His only claim upon his party was that he went down in Louisiana and tried to enforce Johnson's policy there. If elected he would be as plastic in the hands of the Brigadiers of Congress as clay in the hands of the potter. "Why," said Daggett, "you have no idea how things are in Washington. The halls of the nation are bristling with treason even now, and the people will never make the mistake of putting the government into the hands of such people. The issue of this campaign is not between Hancock and Garfield as men; it is between the principles which have all along found their representatives in the Republican party and those advocated by the Democrats headed and controlled by these Brigadiers. The head of the ticket will not lose a single vote. There is no reason why Hancock should poll a larger vote than did McClellan, nor as large as did Greeley. Principles are at stake, and as long as that is the case the Republicans are bound to win every time."

Daggett says the Democrats are having their hurrah altogether too soon. They are, in fact, giving their very biggest whoop-er-up before the campaign is fairly commenced, exhausting all their ammunition, saying all they can say, and by and by when the Republicans get ready to start in the Democrats will find their enthusiasm all gone, themselves with nothing new to offer and their campaign lost. Even now they have about given up Indiana.
